

Jindal Business Responsibility Policies

Principle- 7

Responsibility in Influencing Public and Regulatory Policies

Philosophy:

As a Corporate Citizen, Jindal Worldwide Limited understands its responsibility to operate within the democratic set up and constitutional framework.

It believes that to protect overall interest of its business and the diverse stakeholders, the Company should express its fair views, opinions, representations, concerns etc. on the policies framed by the competent authorities. The Company's engagement with the relevant association/forums/chambers etc. is guided by the values of commitment, integrity, transparency and the need to balance interests of diverse stakeholders.

Policy:

- To ensure that the Business advocacy positions are consistent with the Principles and Core Elements as contained in the Policy while pursuing policy advocacy.
- To utilize the trade and industry chambers and associations and other such collective platforms to undertake such policy advocacy.

Other Guidelines:

- The Company recognizes that it operates within the specified legislative and policy frameworks prescribed by the Government, which guides its growth and also provide for certain desirable restrictions and boundaries.
- The Company acknowledges that in a democratic set-up, such legal frameworks are developed in a collaborative manner with participation of all the stakeholders including peer players.
- The Company shall strive to engage with the Government and be a part of various chambers and associations to make recommendations/ representations before regulators and associations for advancement and improvement of the industry it does business.
- The executives of the Company shall participate and play an active role in committees, associations etc. constituted for industry reforms and advancement.
- The Company shall perform the function of policy advocacy in a transparent and responsible manner while engaging with all the authorities and shall take into account the larger national interest.
- This policy will be reviewed on a regular basis to evaluate continued relevance and to monitor compliance.

For Jindal Worldwide Limited
Authorized Signatory

